WRIGHT FULLMORE
 Wright Fullmore, probably the wealthiest colored man in Medina County, died at his home, some seven miles South of Hondo, Tuesday night.
 By hard work, good judgment and frugality, he had acquired a competency that would have enabled him to pass the remainder of his life in comparative comfort had not death intervened. He had long been a member of the church, and his faith in the saving grace of his Christ was as strong as the sinews in his great black arms, and doubtless all is well with him in the land beyond the grave. Medina County lost a good citizen in the passing of the old colored man.

Henry Leinweber, one of the Upper Hondo's progressive farmers, was a caller at this office Wednesday and moved up his dates to the Anvil Herald and FARMING. Mr. Lein-weber is one farmer who is convinced that the corn root worm can be kept in check by crop rotation and this pest has no terrors for him.
 What he is most concerned about
 now is an early rain, so he can plant corn.

O. G. Cruseturner, one of the lower Hondo's progressive young farmers, was a business caller at this office Saturday moving up his brother's subscription to the Anvil Herald and ordering FARMING sent to him. Friends of the family will regret to learn that Mr. John Cruseturner, who has been an invalid for several years, is still confined to his bed.

J. M. Fusselman was up from his ranch Tuesday and dropped in on the printer folks to move up his dates to the Anvil Herald and FARMING. Mr. Fusselman is one of FARMING's old time standbys, the men who are helping us put it over.

 games of base ball with that town.
 The Aztecs reached the border town
 at 9:30 and at 10:30 gave the border aggregation a durbbing to the tune of 8 to 1. In the afternoon game, not wishing to be too hard on their opponents, the Aztecs let them have the game by a score of 6 to 5. The border team will play a return game with the Aztecs here in about two weeks.

G. R. Taylor, the broomcorn man, was here this week in the interest of securing an acreage of broom corn this season among the farmers around Hondo. He and August Schuehle attended a meeting of farmers at Upper Quihi school house Thursday night where the matter was discussed in an open meeting. Mr. Taylor represents the C. D. Jarratt Company in this plan, and offers to advance the money needed to finance the crop, furnish expert help in growing, harvesting and marketing the crop, all on a contract basis. Our farmers have three reasons, aside from whatever merits Mr. Taylor's proposition may contain in itself, why they should be interested in this crop. The first is the natural adaptability of our soil and climate to the sorghums; second, its—so far as known to any one—positive immunity from the ravages of the corn root worm, now a serious menace on many of our corn farms; and third, the lateness of the season for planting Indian corn this spring. So the local representative, August Schuehle, and get further details from him.

Latest reports from the hospital where Mrs. August Kempf, underwent a second operation last Saturday report her as resting well and indications now are that she soon will again be enjoying normal health. Mrs. Kempf has been in San Antonio some three months receiving treatment, and the people of Hondo devoutly hope that she is now on the road to a complete recovery.

FORTY-FOUR YEARS OF RAINFALL

In 1880, the late Fritz Rothe, Sr., began keeping a record of the rainfall. The record was begun at the F. Rothe place on the Hondo (later known as the Hy. Rothe place) and the figures from 1880 to 1890 were recorded at that place. In 1890 he moved a few miles southwest of his former home and located on the Seco, where the figures have since been kept. Up to 1900, the rainfall was measured in an ordinary cup; since then a standard rain gauge has been used. Since Mr. Rothe's death in 1916, his sons at home have kept the records and we are indebted to Mr. Gus. A. Rothe for the valuable table which follows. The compilation of this data entailed a great deal of painstaking labor. You should preserve it for future reference. The table is consistent in but one thing that we can see—that is, we have an erratic rainfall in Texas. Save for the fact that the rainfall for the past six years has been more than normally heavy, it will be an optimist indeed who can read into the records the oft repeated assertion that the rainfall is growing veying.

We are reprinting here the records as kept at Hondo by Judge Haass for the last 25 years, thinking some might be interested in comparing the figures and noticing the variation only a few miles make in some years.

It will be noticed by Mr. Rothe's records that the months of March, April, May and June are usually months of a fair amount of rainfall.

That being true, may we not hope that the next four months may yet bring us sufficient moisture to save the year 1925 for our farmers?

THE STAR Presents "AMERICA"

D.W. GRIFFITH presents AMERICA

A thrilling story of Love and Romance by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

The Great Romance

DECLARED by many critics to be more wonderful than "The Birth of a Nation"; more thrilling than "Way Down East"

Love and Laughter Thrills Suspense

This picture play is an attempt to suggest in a small way the great sacrifice made by our forefathers that America might become a free and independent nation.

It is not an attempt to portray the story of the Revolutionary War; as that story is too tremendous to be told fully by many picture plays, much less by one.

No efforts have been spared to have the historical incidents as correct as possible. The villages of Lexington and Concord were designed from the Doolittle drawings, and descriptions given by writers of the day.

In the conflict at Lexington and Concord Bridge, despite the numbers engaged, our picture shows the exact number killed.

The battle lines at Lexington are exact reproductions of the original, as to numbers—800 British against 77 Americans.

The detail of Paul Revere's ride are historical incidents and not dramatic conveniences. When pursued by British horsemen, he outrode them by hurdlng fence and gate cross-country, finally losing them in a quagmire.

Replicas of Paul Revere's lanterns were actually hung in Old North Church for the signals.

The drum used by the Minute Men is the original one used at the Battle of Lexington. Several flint-lock guns carried in the scene were actually used in that strife, and pistols shown are those recovered from Maj. Pitcairn's horse, after being abandoned when injured.

Buckman's Tavern is an exact reproduction, and the Clark home is an actual photograph of the original.

As for Walter Butler, symbol of other leaders in the battle of autonomy against freedom, Fiske, perhaps the greatest of the American historians, says he is the only character in all history in whom he could find not one single redeeming trait.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.

The County Commissioner's Court met in regular session Monday, all members being present.

Price Garrett was appointed County traffic officer for Medina County, his appointment to take effect upon his appointment as deputy by the Sheriff and giving satisfactory bond. His tenure of office to run for the year 1925. C. J. Schuehle was re-appointed as County traffic officer for Medina County for the year 1925, unless revoked at an earlier date as provided by law. Owing to the fact that only one county traffic officer is available to patrol on Highway No. 3, through Medina County, and other adjacent roads to Castroville, LaCoste and other points, and in view of the fact that violations of the traffic laws are being committed by motorists on said highway and other roads, thereby endangering the lives of the traveling public, an emergency exists for the appointment of an additional traffic officer to patrol said roads and other highways of Medina County, and it is ordered that Henry Haller be and is hereby appointed as an additional County traffic officer, his appointment to take effect immediately, and to run for the year 1925 unless revoked at an earlier date, as provided for by law. It was further ordered by the Court that eighty per cent of all fines collected by Medina County for violations of traffic laws shall be paid to the respective County traffic officer who made the arrest, to supplement their fees which are wholly inadequate to support said officer, said officers to be paid by the County Treasurer at the end of each quarter. This to take effect immediately.

Ordered that Kuykendall & Shelton be paid finals on Sections A, and C, Highway No. 3 and exception at Hondo bridge.

There being necessity to attend the monthly meeting of the State Highway Department, which meets Monday, March 16th, in Austin it is ordered that necessary expenses be allowed to County Judge and all members of the Court able to attend said meeting.

The Court adjourned Monday afternoon.

W. H. TAYLOR.

On Sunday afternoon, March 8th, 1925 there was laid to rest another one of our old honored citizens, W. H. Taylor, who moved to Hondo in 1891, some thirty four years ago.

Bro. Taylor was born in Rusk Co., near Henderson, Texas, May 29, 1846. Before moving to Medina Co. he lived a number of years in Coryell Co., where in 1886 at Eagle Springs he was converted and united with the Baptist Church. He was a loyal member of his church, a good christian and active in the work of his Master until the weakness of age and poor health prevented him from active service.

In 1873 he married Miss Mattie Brown of Lavaca Co., Texas, who for more than fifty years, has been his faithful companion and helper along life's pathway. They were blessed with nine children, two of whom preceded him into the world beyond. In his going he leaves his widow and children as follows: Mrs. C. R. Gaines of Hondo, Mrs. J. J. Harris of Longview, Mrs. J. S. Nichols of Lexington, N. C., Mrs. J. M. Walker of Staples, Mr. J. R. Taylor of Hondo, G. C. Taylor of San Antonio, and E. N. Taylor of Plaquemine, La., also one brother and two sisters besides thirty grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Bro. Taylor was a devoted husband, an affectionate and loving father, and a good citizen, always interested in every thing that pertains to the best interest of his country and the community in which he lived.

Just beyond where the shadows are falling
Is a bright summer land ever fair;
With the brilliance of day it is glowing.
And the night never falls over there.

Shall we weep when we know the departed,
With their toils and their cares now are done,
And the bliss of eternity's ages,
In the presence of God is begun?"

BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Charley Johnson and Miss Fay Russell were hostesses to the Bridge Club Saturday afternoon at the Armstrong Hotel.

The tall vases of pear blossoms were reminiscent of old Japan and the talley cards of oriental figures, by which the guests found partners, carried out the idea. But a most complete transportation to the land of the kimono was effected when at 5:30 Miss Flossie Russell and Miss Frances Neumann, as demure Japanese maids, spread lunch cloths and served refreshments of hot tea, pineapple cream and iced individual nut cakes, cut in the shapes of the four card suits. Tiny open Japanese parasols and a spray of pear blossoms were plate favors. Each guest also found several sentimental motto wrapped candies, the mottoes of which were be read aloud.

At the conclusion of six games Mrs. F. S. Cockrell held high score of five games, and was awarded the prize—a Mediera linen handkerchief.

The guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Oscar Miller, Ralph Noonan and Earl Boon. The members were Mesdames Lou Heath, F. S. Cockrell, Chas. Monkhouse, P. P. Brewster, Charley Johnson; Misses Gertrude Reilly, Willa Mae Gaines, Bess Brucks, Fay Russell, Lillian Brucks.

The Club will meet with Mesdames Brewster and Monkhouse at the latter's home on Thursday, March 19th.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce at the hall Tuesday night, the question of closing up one room each week on account of the small no doubt being the cause of larger attendance than usual.

The Chamber of Commerce had asked to lay before the members of the town the question of closing up one room each week to their employees a half-holiday help encourage a baseball club in the town. The introduction of the subject by President Batot, brought out quite a good deal of interest and developed considerable opposition to the suggestion. It was developed that some of the Chamber of Commerce looking at the men directly affected, the men of the Chamber not directly concerned felt a delicacy in acting and the matter was dropped without any formal action being taken.

Several of those most outspokenly opposed to the proposition assured the members present that while they did not wish to close their places of business for a half day, any of their employees desiring to attend a ball game could have time off for that purpose any day except Saturdays.

So the matter was left.

The Committee on Membership reported 82 members having paid their dues for 1925. This is the largest membership in the history of the Chamber.

The ladies of the town having asked to be given custodianship of Public Park, the same, on motion duly made, seconded and carried, was granted.

The Farm Bureau having discontinued the payment of $10.00 per month rent, its prorata share of the $50.00 monthly rental for the building occupied by the Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion, a committee composed of Garland Martin, August Weynand and Rollie Bless was appointed to confer with the American Legion looking to a readjustment of the rates of rent.

Heretofore the Legion has paid $10 per month for its quarters in the second story; the county has paid $10 per month for an office in the front of the building for the County Agents office; the Farm Bureau, $10 for a meeting place and the Chamber of Commerce, $20.00 per month.

A resolution requesting the people of Hondo to clean up their premises before the advent of warm weather was adopted, and the week beginning next Monday, March 16th, was designated as clean-up week.

A resolution forbidding agents using the Chamber of Commerce hall for displaying samples, etc., was adopted.

The body then adjourned.

"Burn all women and children!" Such, according to history, was the edict sent forth by Capt. Walter Butler, the arch-fiend of the War of American Independence, when he and his band of Tories and Indians swept through Northern New York and Pennsylvania, seeking to exterminate the peaceful farmer-settlers, and to destroy the great grain fields, which General George Washington relied upon to supply his arms with food.

It is the story of this savage campaign, in which more than 10,000 men, women and children perished, in which whole settlements were razed, acres of grain fired, and in which some of the most courageous fighting of the War of American Independence took place, that David Wark Griffith depicts in the romantic photodrama of the Revolution, "America" at the STAR Theatre, March 19th and 20th.

Probably at once one of the most important, and the least known campaigns of this country's struggles for freedom, the war in the North Country, as it was known, surpasses in drama many of the better known events and battles of the Revolution.

Seven dollars in English gold was offered—and paid according to records—for every male scalp delivered by the Indians, or by those degenerate Tories, who painting themselves as Indians, performed deeds from the horror of which even the redskins shrank.

This price, representing as it did a small fortune in Continental currency, is one of the best indications of how important the British forces of the day regarded this campaign, upon the success or failure of which depended the entire food supply of the American fighting forces.

Against the hordes of redskins and painted Tories, who drunk with greed, bestiality and strong spirits, invaded the peaceful valley fighting with the fury of fatalistic madmen, the little colonies of settlers made brave stands, and no portion of history is so replete with records of individual heroism as that which tells of this campaign, from which Griffith has drawn some of his most telling and most dramatic scenes.

SHIPS FAT CATTLE.

J. J. Russell and Henry Boehle shipped a car load of 35 head of fat beeves to the San Antonio Market yesterday afternoon.

Among the lot were fourteen head of Mr. Russell's Polled-Angus, mostly young heifers. It seemed a pity for such fine breeding stock to go to the butcher block, but there being such a slow demand for them Mr. Russell decided to take the 7 1-2 cents, the contract price made for them by the Union Packing Co. of San Antonio.

Mr. Russell had been feeding his cattle for the past 80 days and they were in prime condition. He began feeding on a small ration of crushed Red Kafir heads, soon increasing to a daily ration of four pounds of this feed. The last four weeks he fed a mixture of 1 3-4 pounds cotton seed meal, 1 1-2 pounds crushed oats and four pounds of crushed corn. Besides this grain ration, the animals had all of the choice sorghum hay they would eat up.

Owing to the rapid gains made and the weight attained, Mr. Russell is well satisfied with the results of the feeding.

WILL ROGERS
ADVERTISING
WRITER
When Will Rogers' bones are inches beneath the sod, his stone will bear a new epitaph. There will be no mention of his fame as cow puncher, no praise of his gift of humor, no eulogy of his career before the Follies bright lights and the movie Kleig lights. It's going to be an original epitaph, the one and only one in the world. It will read:

WILL ROGERS
"An Honest Ad Writer"
Will hung out his shingle in the advertising profession by agreeing to write Bull Durham advertising.
For the first time in the history of the printed word, a copy writer was given carte blanche to say whatever he wished about a product.
Rogers was to write as he felt.
The first startle he gave the advertising world was to write a testimonial advertisement about Bull Durham, in which he talked of nothing but cross word puzzles.
"Everywhere you go, everybody is figuring out a Cross Word Puzzle.
Nobody is working or even exercising. America will lose the next war but win the next puzzle contest. It's the greatest craze that has hit the country since Prohibition."
"People say to me, 'Why Will, you don't understand. It's an education.
It learns you more ways to say one word.' If you know one way to say a word, what do you need to know any more for. Nobody is going to give you something for nothing. I don't care how many ways you ask for it. This puzzle has done one thing. It has learned us which is horizontal and which is vertical."
This paper is fortunate to be among those in which the Bull Durham advertising is running. The time you see an advertisement headed the "Bull's Eye"—read it.
We guarantee it will make you laugh,
no matter if you're suffering with chronic dyspepsia.

LACOSTE LEDGERETS
From The LaCoste Ledger.
MRS. MARY LOUISE WINANS.
Late Tuesday evening, March 3rd,
the sad news flashed over our community that Mrs. Mary Louise Winans had passed away at 6:30 p. m., at her home near Pearson, after an illness dating back some four years.
She had been confined to bed for the past eight months.
Mrs. Winans was born on July 7th, 1876, and had attained the age of 48 years, 6 months and 27 days. On January 6, 1910, she was happily married to Mr. F. M. Winans, to which union two sons were born, namely: John Edward and Francis Adolph. Mr. and Mrs. Winans lived in Edwards County for eight years
after which they moved to Medina County, where they have made their home ever since.
The deceased leaves surviving her,
besides her husband and two sons,
her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ihnken, three sisters, Mrs. Otto Greeven of Mico, Mrs. Henry Kauffman of LaCoste, Mrs. E. H. See-katz of Mico, and two brothers, Albert and Adolph of LaCoste.
Her body was brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Kauffmann, at LaCoste, Wednesday, March 4th,
from where she was taken to St.
Mary's Catholic Church, where, after services was tenderly laid to rest in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery. Rev.

rites of the church.

Droitcourt of LaCoste, J. J. Droitcourt of Hondo, Fritz Droitcourt of Castroville, E. H. Seekatz of Mico, Ewell Brown and Walter Kildurn of

One of the largest concourses of sorrowing relatives and friends ever witnessed here followed the corps to its last resting place, which shows the esteem in which she was held by citizens from here and surrounding towns.
We join the community in extending our condolence to the grief-stricken family.

QUIHI NOTES.

Next Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock a very timely and interesting sermon relative to the V Commandment will be delivered in the English language at the Quibi Lutheran Church. In the forenoon, at 10:30 o'clock the usual divine service in the German tongue will be held. All are cordially invited to these services.

Lenten services are being held, and will continue to be held every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock during the whole of the Lenten season at the Quibi Lutheran Church.

The Luther League of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church of Quibi held a very interesting meeting last Sunday night, received into its membership several new members.

A committee composed of Messrs. Alfred Boehle and Rolf Saathoff and Misses Margaret Reitzer and Amanda Grell was appointed to attend the State Convention of Luther Leagues which meets in San Antonio this spring or summer.

An exceptionally fine and interesting program was rendered in the Quibi Lutheran Church last Sunday night by the Bethlehem Lutheran League. The Church was much too small to house and seat the large and appreciative audience which had come to hear and enjoy the program.

All numbers on the program were, however, rendered so loud and distinct that the many who stood at the open windows and doors were able to also hear and enjoy them. Besides the home people of Quibi, a number of welcome visitors were present and among these a number expressed their delightful surprise at the excellency of ability manifested by the young people of Quibi in their oratorical, musical and literary renditions, as well as at their splendid behavior.

Simple Way To End Night Coughing

No matter how long you have been troubled with exasperating coughing at night, robbing you of valuable sleep and thereby weakening your system and laying you open to dangerous infections, it can usually be stopped at once by a very simple treatment. Most people have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and almost every throat irritation. It contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Editor and General Manager
WILL ROGERS

Another 'Bull' Durham advertisement by Will Rogers. Ziegfeld Folies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

THE fourth of March is a Politician's uncertain day. He is either coming in or going out. If he is staying in it's because they haven't got wise to him yet. I have always said Office holders should be elected for life (subject, of course, to impeachment for neglect or dishonesty). Then they could give their work all of their time, instead of worrying about how to stay in, and that would do away entirely with the biggest social problem we have to face in this country. And that is the thousands of Individuals who go through life just trying to get in office. If we could get their mind off offices, and get 'em to working at something useful. But what's the use talking about a Heaven on earth. We got to die to get rid of the Office seeker, and then I bet you we will find them, either wanting to have Saint Peter impeached, or to get a job as Superintendent of the Furnace. Oh Yes, I like to forget 'Bull' Durham. It will be on sale in both places, no advance in prices.

Will Rogers

P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

MORE OF EVERYTHING for a lot less money. That's the net of this 'Bull' Durham proposition. More flavor—more enjoyment—and a lot more money left in the bankroll at the end of a week's smoking.
